

sabrina's dirty deeds

by SABRINA HAHN

ABOUT THE BOOK

Gardening goddess Sabrina Hahn has never been afraid of getting dirty, and nor should you! Packed full of useful information from January right through to December, Sabrina's Dirty Deeds is a hands-on guide for what to do in your garden and when to do it. With great tips for chores in your climate zone, this little book will help keep your garden thriving all year round.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sabrina comes from a long line of obsessive gardeners. She started landscaping at the age of four, stripping flowers and foliage from her grandmother's garden and creating fabulous miniature gardens in all her nan's baking trays. At the age of 22 she found cake tins too limiting and studied horticulture more formally at Bentley TAFE. Sabrina's radio career began in Kalgoorlie in 1985 and she has worked in ABC gardening radio ever since. Her work in remote Aboriginal communities in WA's Kimberley region has been a huge success and helps ensure that the knowledge of bush tucker plants is passed on from one generation to the next.

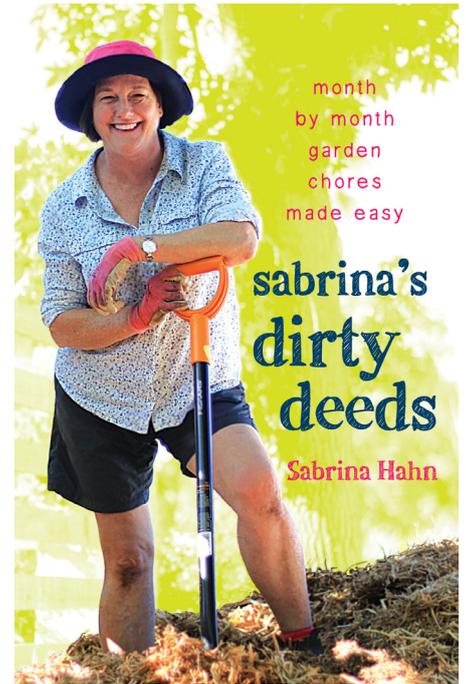

NOTES

- Sabrina has shared her passion for green spaces on ABC radio for over 25 years and she writes a twice-weekly gardening column in The West Australian.
- Sabrina is one of the earliest pioneers to promote sustainable gardening practices in Australian media.
- She is the author of Sabrina's Juicy Little Book of Citrus and Sabrina's Little ABC Book of Gardening.
